volunteering
TASMANIA

FILL THE SEASON WITH MEANING BY VOLUNTEERING

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25 Make your Christmas Count 2026

CONTACT US State office : 16b Elmsleigh Rd, Derwent Park TAS 7009, Australia

(03) 6231 5550 | team@volunteeringtas.org.au | www.volunteeringtas.org.au

volunteering
TASMANIA

1: Get inspired - check out many more volunteering opportunities via Volunteer Connect.
2. Participate in a Christmas Hamper project - such as with Sorell Community Network.
3: Work a shift at the Giving Machine Eastlands - open from 23 November to 27 December.
4: Organise a Food Drive - Gather non-perishable items and deliver to Foodbank Tasmania.
5: Help out at a cultural event like the European Christmas Fair at the Polish Club, Newtown on 29 November, or the Latin Christmas Festival at Kingborough Community Hub on 5 December.
6: Help the Planet - Join a Landcare, Bushcare, Coastcare or Wildcare working bee.
7: Prepare Care Packages - Assemble hygiene kits or care packs for people experiencing homelessness, consider supporting Hobart City Mission or Launceston City Mission.
8: Deliver Holiday Treats - Bake edible treats, or make some festive craft items and share them with friends, neighbours, aged care homes, homeless shelters, or community centres.
9: Help a neighbour with a random act of kindness - Run errands or mow their lawn.
10. Give joy to Tasmanian families by donating to the ABC Giving Tree to support Tasmanian Charities to buy toys, gift cards and food hampers for individuals and families.
11. Contact your local Neighbourhood House and see how you can help.
12. Help organise and deliver a local Christmas Carol event, such as Sorell Carols on 12 December, or search online to find a local event in your area.
13: Do your own clean up at the beach, park or bushland or check out Conservation Volunteers.
14: Join a charity gift-wrapping effort - such as Ronald McDonald House at Eastlands.
15: Support a local Animal Shelter - Walk dogs, clean kennels, or donate pet supplies.
16: Check out all the ways you can get involved with The Salvation Army this Christmas.
17: Help at a mobile laundry such as Orange Sky - providing clean laundry and conversation to those experiencing hardship and homelessness.
18: Get writing - Send handwritten cards with personal messages to nursing homes or hospitals.
19: Share a meal - help Food Not Bombs cook and serve lunch to anyone who is hungry - at Criterion House Hobart, every Saturday 1pm
20: Spread the joy of reading - sort through your books, and donate to a nearby Street Library.
21: Help charity retail stores clear stock in the lead up to the gift-giving season, such as with Australian Red Cross
22: Donate Blood - Schedule a blood donation to help save lives.
23: Get involved with Tassie Mums who support babies and children to live a happy, healthy life.
24: Visit an Aged Care home - Spend time with residents, do craft, share stories, help in the garden.
25: Volunteer at the Christmas Day Community Lunches in Hobart and Launceston, hosted by CatholicCare.

CONTACT US State office : 16b Elmsleigh Rd, Derwent Park TAS 7009, Australia
(03) 6231 5550 | team@volunteeringtas.org.au | www.volunteeringtas.org.au